Has selected the following CTA/NEA-R Member as a WHO AWARD nominee:

_____

Address _____

City, Zip Code_____

Email Address _____Home Phone _____

This award exemplifies the high ideals of public education, the profession, and the Association. First and foremost, the nominee should be an outstanding retired educator, someone whose impact public education is exemplary. In addition, the nominee should be one who has provided specific contributions to retirees through innovative projects or remarkable successes. Most likely, such a retiree will also be involved in some community and association activities which promote public education. While Association leadership experience is not a prerequisite for this award, it is expected that the nominee is supportive of CTA/ NEA - Retired.

Detailed information is required on the reverse of this form, describing specific contributions and serve to the profession, public education and our Union – projects, innovations, successes.

Applications must be submitted by Monday, December 17, 2012 to:
