

General Criteria Evaluation Sheet for: César Chávez Memorial Education Awards Selection		Length: 1000 – 1500 words Grade: Community College
	Content	Conventions	Visual Representation
	-Quality of written work indicates high fluency. -Addresses award criteria in an outstanding/exceptional manner.	-Outstanding use of grammatical structures -Student employs sophisticated sentence structure -No spelling errors. -No capitalization errors. -No punctuation errors.	-The work is outstanding and exemplifies the ideas or feelings as addressed by the award criteria.
	-Quality of written work indicates some fluency. -Addresses award criteria in a commendable manner.	-Excellent use of grammatical structures -Student varied and appropriate sentence structure -No spelling errors. -No capitalization errors. -No punctuation errors.	-The work clearly communicates an idea or feeling as addressed by the award criteria.
	-Quality of written work indicates attempt at fluency, but quantity may be somewhat limited. -Addresses award criteria in an adequate manner.	-Good use of grammatical conventions -Student uses good sentence structure -Minimal spelling (1-2) errors. -1 - 2 capitalization errors. -1 - 2 punctuation errors.	-The work communicates an idea or feeling as addressed by the award criteria.
	-Quality of written work is limited. -Some evidence of addressing the award criteria.	-Minimal understanding of grammatical rules -Employs weak or simple sentence structure -Somewhat limited in correct spelling. -Some evidence of run-ons and/or fragments -3+ capitalization errors. -3+ punctuation errors.	-The work to some extent communicates an idea or feeling as addressed by the award criteria.
	-Quality of response is limited -Little evidence of addressing the award criteria.	-Little understanding of grammatical rules -Employs poor sentence structure -Limited in correct spelling. -Limited understanding of capitalization and punctuation rules.	-Limited evidence of communicating an idea or feeling as addressed by the award criteria.
	-A blank paper or very limited production. -No evidence of addressing the award criteria.	-No understanding of grammatical rules -Student writes illegibly. -Little evidence of correct spelling. -Little evidence of capitalization and punctuation rules.	-No evidence of communicating an idea or feeling as addressed by the award criteria.

The community college rubric contains the same criteria as the 9-12 rubric. However, it is expected that the community college entry will cite resources using footnotes or a bibliography.