Does your school lounge need sprucing up? Enter the School Lounge Makeover© Contest

Recognizing the lifelong impact of teachers and the current financial strain on public schools, California Casualty, CTA's-endorsed auto and home insurance vendor, created the School Lounge Makeover® contest in 2011.

Twice a year, one randomly drawn winner receives a major transformation of the primary space at his or her school that teachers and staff can go to rejuvenate and recharge.

In 2012, prizes were awarded to two California schools -- Warner Middle School (Westminster TA) and Quartz Hill Elementary School (Westside Union TA). Last year, CTA member, Kendra Bowles, entered and won the contest for Sunnydale Elementary (TA of Lancaster). There was plenty of excited chatter and squeals of delight when she and her colleagues finally got to see their "new"

are now being taken at www. schoolloungemakeover.com. Any CTA member is eligible to enter the contest. All members at the school may also enter, thus increasing their school's chances of winning. Complete rules and entry forms are at www.schoolloungemakeover.com.

California Casualty has been serving the needs of educators for more than 60 years and is the only auto and home insurance company to earn the trust and endorsement of CTA. As a result, CTA members qualify for exceptional rates, deductibles waived for vandalism or collisions to your vehicle parked at school, holiday or summer skip payment plans and free Identity Defense protection.
