

Welcoming All Students

All students should have equal access to a high-quality public education free from discrimination or bias regardless of their economic status, race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, status or other characteristics.

EDUCATING EACH OTHER

CTA's Human Rights Department (HRD) is committed to developing and offering trainings that focus on building awareness and welcoming all students.

Racial & Social Justice Programs:

- Monthly trainings
- Ethnic Minority Early Identification & Development (EMEID) Program
 - Leadership program for BIPOC members
- Cadre Training Program
 - Educators training other educators to deliver authentic, inspiring and transformational sessions

▶ CTA.ORG/HUMANRIGHTS

Attend Yearly Conferences:

- LGBTQ+ Issues
- Equity & Human Rights

▶ CTA.ORG/CONFERENCES

Fighting for Justice

Social justice for all begins with a free, quality public education. For that to happen, our students need to feel welcome in schools and seen by their educators. For resources, videos, posters and shareables to create welcoming learning environments for all students, visit cta.org/SocialJustice.

Access Resources:
CTA.ORG/SOCIAL-JUSTICE