

Resources for Lessons, Activities, and Supplemental Materials that Focus on the LGBTQIA+ BIPOC Contributions to History and Culture

Grade Level	Unit / Source / Website	Content Description
TK-12	STORYCORPS https://storycorps.org/?s=lgbtq	Shared collection of recorded and archived LGBTQ personal stories through audio stories, podcast episodes, and animated shorts.
TK-12	Teaching LGBTQ History https://lgbtqhistory.org/lgbtq-educational-resources/	This website is dedicated to “ Teaching LGBTQ History ” which primarily focuses on providing resources and materials that fulfill the requirements put forth by the FAIR Education Act with regards to LGBTQ history
Various	https://sharemylesson.com/lgbtqi-a-educator-resources	LGBTQIA+ Inclusive Educator Resources and Lesson Plans
6-12	Olive Garrison’s Materials (History Social Science Teacher from Kern HS)	Teaching LGBTQ+ History Resource Curriculum Guide Google Slides version Fair Act presentation The Fair Act and Teaching LGBTQ+ History part 1 The Fair Act and Teaching LGBTQ+ History part 2
Grades 6-8, 9-12	“Understanding LGBTQ+ History: A Toolkit For Educators” https://ca.pbslearningmedia.org/collection/lgbtq-identity/	“Understanding LGBTQ+ History: A Toolkit For Educators” Classroom resources, lesson plans, video content
Grade Level	Unit / Source / Website	Content Description
Grades 6 and up	Unheard Voices: Stories of LGBT History	Lesson plans are included for middle and high school students that explore broad themes—such

	https://www.adl.org/resources/lesson-plan/unheard-voices-stories-lgbt-history	as silence and invisibility, inclusion and exclusion, and name-calling—as well as specific topics related to the interviews, such as marriage equality and gender identity. One or more oral histories are integrated into each lesson plan.
Grades 9-12	https://www.adl.org/resources/lesson-plan/stonewall-uprising	This lesson provides an opportunity for students to learn more about the Stonewall uprising, reflect on LGBTQ rights and activism prior to and after Stonewall, and curate content around important milestones in the history of LGBTQ rights.
Grades K-12	https://www.nea.org/resource-library/nea-lgbtq-resources	The NEA is committed to providing every educator with the LGBTQ+ resources needed to help create safe and welcoming schools for all students.
Grades 6-12	https://www.facinghistory.org/resource-library/lgbtq-history-why-it-matters	LGBTQ History and Why It Matters. learn about two millennia of LGBTQ history and reflect on how that history is represented in their textbooks and curricula.
Grades TK-12	https://www.learningforjustice.org/magazine/publications/best-practices-for-serving-lgbtq-students	Guide to help schools become LGBTQ+ inclusive and support LGBTQ+ youth to feel safe and included in school.