

Your Advocate. Your Partner. YOUR CTA.

There are benefits when we stand together.

Non-Members*	CTA Members	Benefits of Membership
N	Y	Joining an organization that advocates for students, staff and the education profession
N	Y	Your right to participate in discussions and vote on salary, benefits and working conditions as collectively bargained between your local union and the school district
Y	Y	Salary, benefits and working conditions as stipulated by the local contract between the district and local association
N	Y	Your right to vote on positions advocated by the union and in electing local chapter, state and national leaders
N	Y	Having a voice in Sacramento on state legislative issues that impact student learning and working conditions in schools and colleges
Y	Y	Representation on matters pertaining to your collectively-bargained agreement and other issues in the classroom
N	Y	$1 million employment liability insurance coverage for legal defense should you get sued
N	Y	Legal services and professional advice provided for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Due process and leave rights, layoffs and California Commission on Teacher Credentialing cases • Certification and classification issues • Discrimination under federal/state laws based on race, gender, age, sexual orientation, etc. • Discrimination based on union activity • Retirement issues
N	Y	Access to professional and leadership development trainings by members sponsored by CTA at the local, regional, state and national levels
N	Y	Access to CTA and NEA professional conferences to support student learning, classroom management, social and emotional skills, special education, social justice and more
N	Y	Scholarships of up to $5,000 a year to continue your education or to support your children going to college
N	Y	Subscriptions to California Educator and NEA Today professional publications
N	Y	CTA Death & Dismemberment Plan (automatic benefit) NEA Complimentary Life Insurance (automatic benefit) CTA Disaster Relief Fund Grants
N	Y	Exclusive CTA and NEA Member Benefits programs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CTA Auto and Home insurance plus CTA Voluntary Group Life and Voluntary Group Disability • CTA Access to Savings: Travel, Entertainment and Purchasing Discounts • CTA 403(b) Retirement Savings Plan and financial tools and resources • Free Calm Subscription for CTA Members • Financial services such as credit cards, credit unions, special mortgage and auto loan programs • Resources to Federal Student Loan Forgiveness Programs at ctamemberbenefits.org/studentloan • Many more products, services and discounts negotiated on behalf of, and provided to, members only

*Under the Educational Employment Relations Act (EERA), bargaining unit members have the right to representation by the exclusive representative ("local association") in their employment relations with the public-school employer.