

EMBRACING ALL STUDENTS

CTA believes that all students should have equal access to high-quality public education free from discrimination or bias regardless of their economic status, race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, status or other characteristics. Many CTA conferences, scholarships, awards and trainings are designed to help build a culture of acceptance and celebration of all students.

HATE FREE ZONE

#WeAreCTA

LEARN MORE

Here's how CTA can support you:

Resources

Protect yourselves and your students.

Social Justice

Learn about the issues we care about.

Posters & Shareables

Download and display at school or in the classroom.

ACCESS RESOURCES & LEARNINGS AT CTA.ORG/SOCIAL-JUSTICE

EDUCATING EACH OTHER

CTA's Human Rights Department (HRD) is committed to developing and offering trainings that focus on building awareness and embracing all students.

Racial & Social Justice Programs:

- Monthly Trainings
- Ethnic Minority Early Identification & Development (EMEID) Program
 - Leadership program for BIPOC members
- Cadre Training Program
 - Educators training other educators to deliver authentic, inspiring and transformational sessions

JOIN US: cta.org/humanrights

Attend our yearly conferences:

- LGBTQ+ Issues (Oct. 27-29, 2023)
- Equity & Human Rights (March 1-3, 2024)

FOR MORE INFO: cta.org/conferences